All new students are required to attend a registration day with their education institution where you will get your University/School/College ID card, find out more about what to expect on your course and get the chance to meet your new lecturers and fellow students. You will be informed of the date in advance. Students are also required to attend an induction day as an introduction to University/School/College life and an overview of what to expect during your time there. This is usually a bit of fun with a presentation from various members of University/School/College staff and the chance for new students to get to know each other.
